Property Description

This stylish development is conveniently located just minutes from the charming town of Estepona, one of the most popular seaside resorts on the south coast of Spain. Often referred to as the 'garden of the Costa del Sol', it is renowned for its lush greenery and beautifully maintained public spaces.

Each home has been designed to make the most of the famous light of this privileged area, with open-plan interiors and expansive outdoor terraces offering the perfect vantage point to soak up the magnificent scenery.

The complex offers underground parking and a private storage cell for each flat, as well as a large communal space for recreation and relaxation. The azure swimming pool is the ideal place to cool off in the Mediterranean sun, use the fully equipped gym to improve your fitness or enjoy the views and scents of the beautifully designed gardens.
