Property Description

In the southern part of the Costa Blanca, in the picturesque village of Pilar de la Horadada, a modern residential development is under construction that impresses with its elegant design, functionality and high standard of finish. The new phase of the project comprises 12 comfortable 1 or 2-bedroom flats, designed to make the most of space and with a south-facing orientation that provides excellent sunlight throughout the day.

On the ground floor, the flats offer spacious gardens, while the first floor flats have sunny terraces and private solariums, ideal for relaxing under the Spanish sky. Residents will also benefit from private off-street parking, bicycle parking with electric charging point, manicured green areas and a modern minimalist-style swimming pool with sun loungers and relaxation area.

Each flat has been equipped with the future owners' comfort in mind: a kitchen with a set of white goods, fully equipped bathrooms, LED lighting, an air-conditioning system (pre-installation) with a thermostat in the living room and modern decorative elements that emphasise the contemporary style of the interiors.

This development is an excellent choice for those looking for flats for sale in Spain, either as a place to live or as a rental investment. With its proximity to beaches, shops, restaurants and excellent connections to Murcia and Alicante airports, it offers exceptional convenience for everyday living. If you are interested in buying a property in Spain away from the tourist crowds but with easy access to all amenities – this offer will meet your expectations.

A Spain property agent will be happy to show you this modern project and answer all your questions about the purchase. How do you buy a property in Spain? With us, it's a simple process – we provide a comprehensive service and secure the transaction.
