Property Description

The development consists of six individual villas, located just 700 metres from the picturesque Muchavista beach, in the prestigious San Juan area of the Costa Blanca. It is a place where modern design combines with comfort and an excellent location to create an ideal living environment.

Each villa offers a spacious, three-storey layout with three comfortable bedrooms and three bathrooms for comfort and privacy. Additional space is provided by a semi-basement with an English patio, which houses three additional rooms, ideal for an office, gym or playroom. The houses have been designed so that everyone can enjoy several terraces, a private garden and full natural light, characteristic of the Mediterranean climate.

Each villa offers luxurious amenities, including a private pool. The master bedroom has been designed as a suite with a large terrace and spacious dressing room, providing the highest standard of comfort. Parking spaces are also provided on the property.
